What do we do around campus?

We focus on campaigns, events, bystander intervention training, collaborating with other on-campus organizations, etc. regarding healthy relationships and consent culture. We address issues like sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. Our goal is to promote open conversation on the stigma surrounding these topics and help promote overall safety at CSBSJU. We provide on and off-campus resources and do our best to spread awareness and support.

Why is CERTS important?

The CERTS team is a student/staff partnership designed to promote conversation on sexual health issues in order to foster healthy, safe decisions around sex. We need/deserve an environment that does not tolerate sexual activity without consent and that is what we are working towards. We have a team of eight passionate students that are spreading awareness on these often sensitive issues. Our team is small in size so having the support of CSBSJU students to amplify our message around our campuses is so important.
